As of December 31, 2024

Safe Harbor Statement

Statements contained in this presentation which are not historical facts and which pertain to future operating results of American Riviera Bancorp (the "Company") and its subsidiaries constitute "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Similarly, statements that describe the objectives, plans or goals of the Company are forward-looking. These forward-looking statements can generally be identified as such by the context of the statements, including words such as "believe," "continues," "expect," "anticipate," "plan," "may," "would," "intend," "estimate," "guidance" and other similar expressions, whether in the negative or affirmative.

These forward-looking statements involve significant risks and uncertainties. A number of important factors could cause actual results to differ materially from those in the forward-looking statements. These factors include loan losses, economic conditions and competition in the geographic and business areas the Company operates, including competition in lending from other banks and lenders, management of our facilities costs, our ability to successfully integrate and develop business through the addition of new personnel, whether our efforts to expand loan, product and service offerings will prove profitable, the effects of bank mergers and acquisitions in our markets, system failures and internet security, whether we can effectively secure and implement new technology solutions, inflation, fluctuations in interest rates, legislation and governmental regulation. These factors could cause actual results to differ materially from what the Company has anticipated or projected. These factors should be carefully considered by our shareholders and potential investors.

These documents contain and identify important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those contained in our projections or forward-looking statements. Except as required by law, the Company assumes no obligation to update any information presented herein. This presentation includes certain non-GAAP financial measures intended to supplement, not substitute for, comparable GAAP measures.

Why Own ARBV?

- ✓ Lower-cost, relationship, diversified, core deposit base with non-interest-bearing demand accounts comprising 39% of total deposits. Demand deposits comprise 49% of total deposits. Total deposits grew 6% in 2024 with zero in wholesale funded deposits at December 31, 2024.
- ✓ History of lifting out teams and capitalizing on disruption among competitors in our market (see page 25). Atascadero branch has reached $20 million in deposits in six months.
- Attractive, growing footprint of branches in California's Central Coast with strong history of relationship-based loan growth funded by a stable deposit base
- ✓ Strong credit quality with no other real estate owned, no loans 90 days or more past due and still accruing, charge-offs are 0% or negative for the last 12 quarters, and only $6.1 million or 0.62% of total loans on non-accrual status which are well supported by collateral, borrower assets, SBA guarantees or specific reserves
- ✓ Tangible book value has increased by 10% from one year ago. We project ability to increase TBV by 10 -13% annually through profit and AOCI improvement.
- ✓ TBV/share excluding AOCI of $21.69 = Trading at 89% of TBV excluding AOCI (utilizing $19.30 share price)
- ✓ Strong and building capital levels to support future growth
