SAFE HARBOR STATEMENT

Statements contained in this presentation which are not historical facts, and which pertain to future operating results of American Riviera Bancorp (the “Company”) and its subsidiaries constitute “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Similarly, statements that describe the objectives, plans or goals of the Company are forward-looking. These forward-looking statements can generally be identified as such by the context of the statements, including words such as “believe,” “continues,” “expect,” “anticipate,” “plan,” “may,” “would,” “intend,” “estimate,” “guidance” and other similar expressions, whether in the negative or affirmative.

These forward-looking statements involve significant risks and uncertainties. A number of important factors could cause actual results to differ materially from those in the forward-looking statements. These factors include loan losses, economic conditions and competition in the geographic and business areas the Company operates, including competition in lending from other banks and lenders, management of our facilities costs, our ability to successfully integrate and develop business through the addition of new personnel, whether our efforts to expand loan, product and service offerings will prove profitable, the effects of bank mergers and acquisitions in our markets, system failures and internet security, whether we can effectively secure and implement new technology solutions, inflation, fluctuations in interest rates, legislation and governmental regulation. These factors could cause actual results to differ materially from what the Company has anticipated or projected. These factors should be carefully considered by our shareholders and potential investors.

These documents contain and identify important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those contained in our projections or forward-looking statements. Except as required by law, the Company assumes no obligation to update any information presented herein. This presentation includes certain non-GAAP financial measures intended to supplement, not substitute for, comparable GAAP measures.

SHAREHOLDER VALUE

High-touch service, community focused business model with strong technology results in:

- ✓ Lower-cost, relationship, diversified, core deposit base with non-interest-bearing demand accounts comprising 38% of total deposits.
- ✓ Demand deposits comprise 53% of total deposits and grew 14% since the same quarter last year.
- ✓ Attractive, growing footprint of branches in California's Central Coast with 19-year history of relationship-based growth.
- ✓ Full lending services, including C&I, SBA, commercial real estate, residential mortgage, and construction.

The right people combined with successful execution:

- ✓ History of lifting out teams and capitalizing on disruption among competitors in our market.
- ✓ Atascadero branch reached $33 million in deposits since opening in June 2024 and is providing positive earnings contribution in 2025.
- ✓ Hired two experienced relationship bankers in October 2025 to open our Ventura County loan production office, beginning our expansion into this adjacent community.

Strong capital growth to support expansion and shareholder return:

- ✓ Tangible book value per share (TBVPS) has increased by 12% from one year ago. We project a sustained ability to increase TBVPS by 10 to 13% annually through profit and AOCI improvement.
- ✓ In 2025, we have repurchased 130,616 shares of common stock at a weighted average cost of $19.80, which is below our current TBVPS, leaving $2.4 million available for repurchase.
- ✓ TBVPS excluding AOCI of $23.10 = Trading at 105% of TBVPS excluding AOCI (utilizing $21.99 share price).

- The Company repurchased 100,000 shares of common stock during the quarter at a weighted average cost of $20.28 per share, which is below tangible book value per share at Sept 30, 2025. The Company has purchased a total of 130,616 shares at a weighted average cost of $19.80, leaving $2.4 million authorized and available for future repurchases under the current stock buyback program.
- A $10 million cash dividend was up streamed from the Bank to the holding company in 3Q2025 which had no impact on the consolidated company-level ratios but reduced the Bank's capital ratios.
- Tangible common equity ratio of 8.27% at consolidated company-level; which includes the negative impact of $14.7 million in Accumulated Other Comprehensive Income (AOCI) related to unrealized losses on securities
- Leverage ratio of 10.69% and risk-based capital ratio of 13.77% at bank-level
- The Bank could absorb the entire unrealized loss in the AFS portfolio and still maintain Leverage and RBC Capital ratios above the regulatory definition of well capitalized
- $16.5 million in subordinated notes outstanding from February 2022 with a fixed rate of 3.75% for first five years, and SOFR + 212 basis points for last five years

CREDIT QUALITY TRENDS

Nonperforming Assets / Total Assets*

Nonperforming, Non-Accrual Assets:

- $3.8 million land loan, zoned for high-density residential development. 65% LTV based on 2025 appraisal. Significant unpaid interest at 15.5% has accumulated and has not been recognized by Bank. Refinance with another lender is in process. Loan sale at par+ is a viable alternative if refinance does not occur.
- $2.3 million beachfront estate. 42% LTV based on July 2025 appraisal. Borrower intends to keep loan current with vacation rental income.
- $1.3 million agricultural land loan, intended for low-density residential development. 56% LTV based on July 2025 appraisal. Borrower intends to keep loan current and may list property for sale.
- $0.9 million comprised of 5 smaller relationships supported by RE collateral, SBA guarantees or fully reserved.
- $1.5 million loan migrated to nonaccrual during the 3rd quarter of 2025 but was paid off with full recovery of all interest and fees subsequent to quarter end.
