SAFE HARBOR STATEMENT

Statements contained in this presentation which are not historical facts and which pertain to future operating results of American Riviera Bancorp (the “Company”) and its subsidiaries constitute “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Similarly, statements that describe the objectives, plans or goals of the Company are forward-looking. These forward-looking statements can generally be identified as such by the context of the statements, including words such as “believe,” “continues,” “expect,” “anticipate,” “plan,” “may,” “would,” “intend,” “estimate,” “guidance” and other similar expressions, whether in the negative or affirmative.

These forward-looking statements involve significant risks and uncertainties. A number of important factors could cause actual results to differ materially from those in the forward-looking statements. These factors include loan losses, economic conditions and competition in the geographic and business areas the Company operates, including competition in lending from other banks and lenders, management of our facilities costs, our ability to successfully integrate and develop business through the addition of new personnel, whether our efforts to expand loan, product and service offerings will prove profitable, the effects of bank mergers and acquisitions in our markets, system failures and internet security, whether we can effectively secure and implement new technology solutions, inflation, fluctuations in interest rates, legislation and governmental regulation. These factors could cause actual results to differ materially from what the Company has anticipated or projected. These factors should be carefully considered by our shareholders and potential investors.

These documents contain and identify important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those contained in our projections or forward-looking statements. Except as required by law, the Company assumes no obligation to update any information presented herein. This presentation includes certain non-GAAP financial measures intended to supplement, not substitute for, comparable GAAP measures.

He graduated from UC Santa Barbara with a BA in Business Economics, and recently completed the Western Bankers Association Executive Development Program.

WHY OWN ARBV?

- ✓ Strong core deposit base at low cost which will continue to benefit interest income and support NIM in this higher rate environment. NIM expanded 25 basis points in 4Q 2022.
- ✓ Net income pre-tax, pre-provision, pre-PPP fees increased $2.3 million (72%) from 4Q 2021
- ✓ No wholesale funding from brokered deposits or use of FHLB advances as of December 31, 2022
- ✓ Growing franchise in California's Central Coast with strong history of relationship based loan growth funded by a stable deposit base
- ✓ Operating leverage expanding as revenue outpaces non-interest expense
- ✓ Trailing 12 month EPS of $2.37 = Trading at 7.6x PE ratio (Annualized Q4 2022 EPS of $2.80 = 6.4x PE ratio, utilizing $18 share price)
- ✓ TBV/share excluding AOCI of $18.63 = Trading at 97% of TBV excluding AOCI (utilizing $18 share price)
- ✓ Annualized Q4 2022 ROAA 1.14% and ROAE 19.12%
